

December 17, 2010

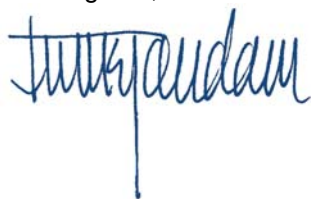

2010-041-00001

Aalborg University's Development Contract 2011

Aalborg University's Development Contract 2011 is based on the targets of the Development Contract 2008-2010.

The contract was settled with the Danish University and Property Agency in November and December 2010.

Best regards,

Finn Kjærdsdam

Aalborg University's Development Contract 2011

Targets of the development contract 2008-2010	Targets of the development contract 2011
1 In 2006 Aalborg University registered 1,930 scientific publications in VBN¹/PURE. In 2006 SBI² registered 124 scientific publications. Target: Within the period of 2008-2010 Aalborg University will register 6,000 scientific publications evenly distributed over the period.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will register at least 2600 scientific publications.
2 In 2006 209 of the scientific employees at Aalborg University were foreign researchers excluding PhD students (equivalent to 23 %). Target: In 2010 Aalborg University will maintain at least 209 foreign researchers constantly throughout the period.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will have at least 230 foreign researchers.
3 In 2006 Aalborg University had 159 foreign PhD students (equivalent to 30.5%). Target: In 2010 Aalborg University will increase the number of foreign PhD students to 225, evenly increasing over the period.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will have at least 350 foreign PhD students.
4 In 2006 Aalborg University had subsidized activities of which the EU supplied DKK 32 million, and the Danish Building Research Institute received DKK 1.8 million. Target: Within the period of 2008-2010 Aalborg University will maintain a constant level of EU subsidized activities at DKK 110 million, and efforts will be made to distribute these evenly over the years.	Target: In 2011 the EU subsidized activities at Aalborg University will reach at least DKK 50 million.
5 In 2006 Aalborg University had subsidized activities of which Danish and foreign private means supplied DKK 65.4 million to the university and DKK 11.6 million to the Danish Building Research Institute. Target: Within the period of 2008-2010 Aalborg University will implement subsidized activities for other Danish and foreign private means of DKK 240 million and efforts will be made to distribute these means evenly over the years.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will implement subsidized activities for other Danish and foreign private means of at least DKK 80 million.
6 In 2006 Aalborg University's total PhD intake for all faculties was 120. Target: Aalborg University has entered a contract with the Ministry of Science, Technology and Innovation about an additional intake in the PhD educational programmes in the years 2007-2010. The agreement has established an intake per year of 229 PhD students in 2008, 249 PhD students in 2009, and 268 PhD	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will take in at least 270 PhD students.

¹ Aalborg University's online knowledge base for search of publications.

² The Danish Building Research Institute.

Targets of the development contract 2008-2010	Targets of the development contract 2011
students in 2010. A deviant higher or lower figure during one year will be adjusted the subsequent year.
7 In 2006 Aalborg University approved 98 PhD dissertations. Target: Within the period of 2008-2010 the university will approve at least 400 PhD dissertations evenly increasing within the period.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will approve at least 125 PhD dissertations.
8 Within the contract period, three PhD schools will be established comprising the researcher educational programmes of the three main areas. The three main areas are Humanities, Social Sciences, and Engineering, Natural and Health Sciences.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will establish a fourth PhD school within the area of Health Science.
9 Early 2007 nine female professors were employed at Aalborg University. Target: Within the period Aalborg University will increase the number of female professors to 14 in 2010 gradually increasing within the period.	Target: In 2011 the number of female professors at Aalborg University will reach 30.
10 New target added in 2011 as agreed with Minister of Science Charlotte Sahl Madsen. It is the government's objective that in 2015 at least 50% of all young people must have a higher education. The universities' high intake in 2010 has contributed significantly towards this target. However the young generations will increase in future. If the universities should maintain the target of 50%, the intake has to be increased each year. Aalborg University had a BA intake of 2816 students by October 1, 2010.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will work towards an extra intake of 30 students, which means an intake of 2846 students by October 1, 2011.
11 In 2006 Aalborg University graduated in total 2,339 graduates, of which 1,366 were masters. Target: Within the period of 2008-2010 Aalborg University will graduate in total 8,000 bachelors and masters, of which at least 4,200 masters, evenly increasing over the years.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will graduate at least 1,400 bachelors and 1,400 masters.
12 Target: Aalborg University will work towards a gradual increase in the completion percentages to the following levels in 2010: <table border="1" data-bbox="188 1608 762 1794"> <thead> <tr> <th></th> <th>Bachelor</th> <th>Master</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>Completed within stipulated time of study</td> <td>60 %</td> <td>40 %</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Completed within stipulated time of study + one year</td> <td>65 %</td> <td>60 %</td> </tr> </tbody> </table>		Bachelor	Master	Completed within stipulated time of study	60 %	40 %	Completed within stipulated time of study + one year	65 %	60 %	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will work towards maintaining the completion percentages to the following levels: <table border="1" data-bbox="997 1666 1465 2040"> <thead> <tr> <th></th> <th>Bachelor</th> <th>Master</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>Completed within stipulated time of study</td> <td>55 %</td> <td>40 %</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Completed within stipulated time of study + one year</td> <td>65 %</td> <td>65 %</td> </tr> </tbody> </table>		Bachelor	Master	Completed within stipulated time of study	55 %	40 %	Completed within stipulated time of study + one year	65 %	65 %
	Bachelor	Master
Completed within stipulated time of study	60 %	40 %
Completed within stipulated time of study + one year	65 %	60 %
	Bachelor	Master
Completed within stipulated time of study	55 %	40 %
Completed within stipulated time of study + one year	65 %	65 %

Targets of the development contract 2008-2010	Targets of the development contract 2011
13 In 2007 Aalborg University will offer 13 courses and educational programmes in entrepreneurship corresponding to 272 ECTS. Target: Within the period Aalborg University will offer all master students education or counselling in entrepreneurship and innovation.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will offer all master students education or counselling in entrepreneurship and innovation.
14 3 % of the candidates from Aalborg University have established their own businesses³. Within this period, Aalborg University will motivate more students to establish their own businesses. In 2006, 26 students or newly graduated candidates completed an entrepreneurship course in the university's incubator arrangement with a view to establishing their own businesses. Target: Within the period of 2008-2010 at least 100 students and newly graduated masters will complete an incubator course.	Target: In 2011 at least 40 students and newly graduated masters will complete an incubator course.
15 In 2006 Aalborg University sent 450 students on a stay abroad; this corresponds to one third of the year's master's production. In 2006 Aalborg University received 460 guest students from foreign cooperating universities and 190 foreign master's students. Target: Within the period of 2008-2010 Aalborg University will each year send 500 students on stays abroad of 3-9 months' duration as an integrated and credit awarding part of their education. Besides, within this period, Aalborg University will each year receive 500 foreign students for credit awarding study stays at Aalborg University's bachelor and master's educational programmes from cooperating universities of high quality.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will send 400 students on stays abroad of 3-9 months' duration as an integrated and credit awarding part of their education and receive 400 foreign students.
16 In 2007 Aalborg University offered approx. 60 educational programmes in English. Target: Within the period Aalborg University will maintain the number of full educational programmes in English.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will offer at least 60 full educational programmes in English.
17 In 2007 Aalborg University implemented an evaluation tool for all study lines and semesters. After each semester Aalborg University will apply the evaluation tool to monitor the quality of education for all ordinary educational programmes at the university.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will initiate a study environment survey at the university.
18 New target added in 2011 as agreed with the Danish University and Property Agency.	Target: In 2011 educational accreditations will proceed at Aalborg University in accordance with the rota system of the Accreditation Institution.
19 New target added in 2011 as agreed with the Danish University and Property Agency.	Target: The quality assurance system at Aalborg University will meet the Standards and Guidelines for Quality Assurance in the European Higher

³ Master and user survey, AAU, 2002

Targets of the development contract 2008-2010	Targets of the development contract 2011
	Education Area.
20 In 2007 Aalborg University had 28 elite students. Target: Within the period of 2008-2010 Aalborg University will graduate 60 elite masters with an even increase throughout the period.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University take in at least 25 elite students.
21 Within this period Aalborg University will ensure that the main part of the education is offered as problem-based learning.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will strengthen the innovative educations at the university by spreading the knowledge of the Principles of the Aalborg PBL-model.
22 Aalborg University will continue to secure all students access to a physical study place at the university whenever they need it.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will ensure that all students have access to a physical study place at the university whenever they need it.
23 Target: Within the period of 2008-2010 Aalborg University will work towards a closer cooperation with the University College of Northern Jutland, for instance by offering courses, continuing education and further education courses, master programmes and PhD educational programmes for teachers of university college education. Aalborg University will secure the establishment of formal cooperation agreements to lay down the guidelines for the cooperation just as a monitoring strategy will be described.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will expand the close cooperation with the University College of Northern Jutland and Copenhagen University College of Engineering.
24 In 2006, 2,599 course participants were registered in the university's offering of continuing and further education. Target: Within this period Aalborg University will offer continuing and further education where a sustainable demand is expressed by the labour market.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will offer continuing and further education where a sustainable demand is expressed by the labour market.
25 In 2006 Aalborg University registered 2,736 contributions to articles, press cuttings, TV, radio, etc. The Danish Building Research Institute (SBI) registered 1,050 contributions in 2006. Target: Within the period of 2008-2010 Aalborg University will register 12,000 contributions evenly distributed over the period.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will register at least 5,000 contributions to articles, press cuttings, TV, radio, etc.
26 In 2006 Aalborg University entered 348 mutual and financially binding cooperation agreements with public, private, and foreign partners. In 2006 the Danish Building Research Institute entered 175 mutual and financially binding cooperation agreements. Target: Within the period of 2008-2010 Aalborg University will enter 1,500 financially binding cooperation agreements evenly distributed over the years. On the basis of the regional industrial structure, Aalborg University will implement a particular effort towards small and medium-sized businesses in the northern and central part of Jutland.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will enter at least 500 mutual and financially binding cooperation agreements.

Targets of the development contract 2008-2010	Targets of the development contract 2011
27 In 2006 Aalborg University had 45 patent and licence applications and sold 14 inventions. Two businesses were established. Target: Within the period of 2008-2010 the number of sales of patents and licences will be 50.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will sell at least 10 patents and licences.
28 In 2006 Aalborg University had certified 13 matchmakers and established six local contact centres (match points). Target: In 2010 the university will have certified 50 matchmakers and have established 10 active contact centres (match points) evenly distributed over this period.	Target: In 2011 Aalborg University will have certified 80 matchmakers and established 12 active contact centres (match points).
29 Within the period of 2008-2010, Aalborg University will provide efficient and targeted advice to the authorities so that at least 90% of all authority projects will be implemented in accordance with the agreement about quality, activity, and time⁴.	In 2011 Aalborg University will provide efficient and targeted advice to the authorities so that at least 90% of all authority projects will be implemented in accordance with the agreement about quality, activity, and time.

⁴Cf. Contract with the Danish Ministry of Economic and Business Affairs