VISITING PROFESSOR: STAFFAN SELANDER

As a visiting professor at Aalborg University – at ILD Lab: IT and Learning Design in Copenhagen and XLab: Design, Learning, Innovation in Esbjerg/Aalborg – I have been able to take initiative to and being part of, Nordic collaborative work. Together, we have developed and expanded the bi-annual, international conference "Designs for Learning" the open access e-journal Designs for Learning (www.designsforlearning.nu) as well as game-oriented learning design with the book Games and Education – Designs in and for Learning (Eds: Hans Christian Arnseth, Thorkild Hanghøj, Thomas Duus Henriksen, Morten Misfeldt, Robert Ramberg & Staffan Selander). We are now also producing a new book on Emerging practices – Innovative designs and learning.

AALBORG UNIVERSITET

A major part of Selander's research
during the last 10
years has focused on
designs for and in
learning, knowledge
representations and
digital learning
environments.
